Vacancy: Part-Time Music Teacher

The Deutsche Schule Durban is looking for a part-time music teacher, starting in January 2024, to teach class music and music appreciation lessons to all classes from Kindergarten to Grade 7. This will involve approximately 8 hours a week, on 2 separate days – Wednesdays and Fridays.

Sound command of the German language is a pre-requisite, and the ideal candidate will be confident, caring and have the ability to effectively and enthusiastically engage with primary school children. The ability to play a musical instrument, preferably piano, and to prepare musical items for various school functions is essential.

Interested candidates are asked to submit a brief CV to the school by e-mailing it to info@dsdurban.co.za, marked "Attention for the Principal". The closing date for submissions is 17h00, Wednesday 18 October 2023.

The appointment of candidates is at the Deutsche Schule Durban's sole discretion. Applicants are invited from South African citizens and persons with a legal work permit. An application will not in itself entitle the applicant to an interview or appointment and failure to meet the minimum requirements of the advertised post will result in applicants automatically disqualifying themselves from consideration. Only short listed candidates will be contacted. If you have not heard from the Deutsche Schule Durban within 10 days of the closing date, please assume that you have been unsuccessful in your application.

Deutsche Schule Durban, in line with POPIA (Protection of Personal Information Act) will attempt to ensure the confidentiality of all applicants for this role. All reasonable measures will be in place to protect personal information but will be used in the recruitment, selection, and reporting process. By submitting your application for this position, you are recognising and accepting this disclaimer.
